2. Swimming Pool & Locker Room Rules

If your child will need a life jacket during swimming, please make sure to indicate this on the sign-in sheet. If a life jacket has been indicated for your child, your child must wear a life jacket. Swimming is a fun part of summer camp. Please make sure that your child always comes with or is wearing a swimming suit under their clothes.

KOPFC's Family Locker Room has single stall changing rooms only. Children that will be attending the second half of Kid's Camp will need to change out of their wet suits. They will be changing by themselves in the changing stalls. If you would like your child to change with their sibling or another family member, you will need to indicate this on the sign-in sheet.

3. Disciplinary Action Steps

These are the steps that our counselors will follow if there is any inappropriate behavior.

*The Kids' Camp Counselors will use a strike system. The child will be given a strike if rules or instructions are not followed. The strikes will be tallied throughout the week and erased after Friday. It is possible for the child to erase a strike if they show exceptional behavior. If the child has 3 strikes on Friday, he/she will not receive the positive reinforcement that is given at the end of each week. If the child has 5 strikes on any day of the week, he/she will not be allowed to swim that day or the rest of that week, unless they can get strikes erased.

1. Verbal Warning-Give verbal warning to child to change or stop behavior
2. Strikes Given- See above for more information.
3. Parent Involvement-If unacceptable behavior continues, parent or guardian will be notified immediately.
4. Suspension-If unacceptable behavior continues after steps 1-3 have been followed, child will be suspended for 1-2 days
5. Termination-After returning to camp from suspension and unacceptable behavior returns, child will be expelled from Kid's Camp for the remainder of the season and possibly will not be able to

Section 6: Communication & Medical Concerns

1. Who to call?

KOPFC and The Oval work together to create a day of fun for your child. We are two businesses that work separately. Due to this, before calling with any discussion items, you will need to determine which business to contact. If you are calling with an issue that occurred between 9:00 AM-12:00 PM, to contact your child during that time, or payment concerns, contact Tasha at 801-385-355-0530 or the KOPFC Front Desk at 801-966-5555. If you are calling regarding issues that occurred between 12:00-3:00 PM or to contact your child during that time, contact Jennifer at 801-503-1061.

2. Illness or Emergency at Camp

If your child becomes ill or an emergency occurs while participating at camp; we will separate your child from the other children immediately, perform needed care and then contact the parent or guardian. Please make sure you are available to be reached at the phone number(s) you have given us when you signed your child in.
